Written by MAJ Marcin Czekalski
Monday, 24 September 2012 10:18

On 23 September 2012, Lieutenant General Rainer Korff, the Commander of Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE) hosted Colonel Brian Bisacre, the Commander of 18th US Military Police Brigade.

During the meeting, Lieutenant General Korff was briefed on Military Police capabilities and a concept of operations for the exercise Anakonda 12.

The 18 Military Police Brigade, United States Army Europe, based out of Germany, is participating in the Anakonda 12 exercise held by the Polish Operational Command. Soldiers of the MP Brigade are working alongside members of the Multinational Corps Northeast. The soldiers from the 18th MP Brigade are taking advantage of this great opportunity to exchange battle tracking techniques and working towards enhancing the NATO partnership among the participating nations.

Colonel Brian Bisacre visited multiple exercise locations and expressed the importance of developing joint operations and supporting future training exercises.

Special thanks to LT Kathleen Rubbo for the contribution to the article.

Photo by: SGT Maksymilian Halec, POL A