Representatives of Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE) joined in the celebrations of the Polish Independence Day held in Szczecin on 11 November 2012.

At noon, the MNC NE Commander Lieutenant General Rainer Korff, along with municipal, regional authorities, representatives of uniformed services, veteran's associations, other organisations and residents of Szczecin, participated in the celebrations at Wały Chrobrego. Among other things, a military parade of troops of Szczecin Garrison took place as well as a display of military and firefighting equipment. A part of the celebration was also reenacting of historical events from 1918.

Later on that day, representatives of the MNC NE Framework Nations and Participating States took part in the ceremony held at the Józef Piłsudski Monument where again met municipal, regional authorities, representatives of uniformed services, veteran's associations and other organisations as well as residents of Szczecin. A highlight of the event was wreath laying ceremony at the Józef Piłsudski Monument to commemorate events leading to regaining independence by Poland after 123 years and people, with Józef Piłsudski in the lead, who contributed to it.
