On 6 September 2012, Croatian Chief of Defence Lieutenant General Drago Lovrić, assisted by Major General Romuald Ratajczak from the Polish General Staff and Brigadier General Mladen Fuzul, Croatian Army, as well as other members of the delegation, paid a visit to Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE).

The MNC NE Commander Lieutenant General Rainer Korff thanked Lieutenant General Drago Lovrić for fruitful cooperation and presented the plans of the Corps with regard to training and exercise calendar and preparations for the mission in Afghanistan. General Lovrić was truly interested in the future of the Corps and that issue was also discussed by the Generals.

Following Croatia's accession to Multinational Corps Northeast in January 2012, General Lovrić reassured that Croatian officers will arrive in the Corps Headquarters according to the plan – that is in the beginning of 2013.
