On 1 February 2013, Major General Bogusław Samol, the Commander of the Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE) paid a visit to the Joint Force Training Centre (JFTC) in Bydgoszcz.

At Director of JFTC, Major General Pavel Macko's initiation, Major General Bogusław Samol had an opportunity to get familiarized in detail with the mission, tasks, structure and role of JFTC but the main aim of the visit was to discuss the ongoing exercises of MNC NE.

"Little Eagle 13" and "Crystal Eagle 13" are the most important and challenging exercises for the Multinational Corps Northeast this year. Both of them will be conducted in cooperation with JFTC. Especially the first one, which will be held in Bydgoszcz, will require a combined effort and partnership from the two parties.

In the second part of the visit, General Samol was accompanied by two staff officers from the Szczecin Headquarters. Lieutenant Colonel Olaf Werner, Chief of G-7 Staff Division, and Lieutenant Colonel Dariusz Stanek, Chief of IT Section, had an opportunity to discuss with their counterparts from JFTC the technical issues of preparations for the exercises.

Presented by Commander of
JOINT FORCE TRAINING CENTRE
MGEN Pavel MACKO
JOINT FORCE
TRAINING CENTRE
MULTINATIONAL CORPS
NORTHEAST

[illegible]