May this Christmas be bright and cheerful and may the New Year begin on a prosperous note!

When Christmas comes, the time seems to slow down, the winter surroundings get nicer thanks to decorations and lights all around and our hearts are more open towards other people. It is a special time for magic things to happen, if we only allow them to.

On the occasion of this year's Christmas, all Headquarters' personnel would like to wish you calm, merry Christmas spent together with the dearest ones. And for the upcoming New Year – successes exceeding the expectations and dreams within the arm's reach.

Let there be joy of Christmas in your hearts!
