Deputy Commander of the Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE) Major General Ryszard Sorokosz participated in the concert dedicated to all the Polish soldiers who died during military missions.

The concert was held on 29 May 2011 in Szczecin Philharmonic. One of the most important guests were families of soldiers who died during military missions in Iraq and Afghanistan. In addition the concert was honoured with the presence of military commanders and local authorities.

After short speeches the performance was given by Military Band of the Polish Armed Forces, Baltic Neapolis Orchestra and Mr. Ryszard Rynkowski.

The concert was organized by Association of Wounded Soldiers Injured in Missions Abroad. The association arose from the initiative of soldiers on active duty and reservists, who have served on missions abroad, were injured, or whose problems stem directly from serving in foreign operations. On the daily basis the association conducts various activities leading to improving lives of the wounded in military missions abroad and takes actions to improve social and living conditions of the association members and their families, and the families of the fallen soldiers.

Photo from the archive of the City Hall of Szczecin (UM Szczecin)