Military Attachés accredited to Poland under the lead of Colonel Jong-kee Hong from South Korea paid a visit to Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) on 6 June 2011.

 "We wanted to know what is going in the MNC NE and what the purpose, mission and role of this unit are," said the Dean, Colonel Jong-kee Hong, about the reasons of visit to Baltic Barracks. Military Attachés representing various countries participated in a briefing presenting Multinational Corps Northeast along with its history, tasks, missions in Afghanistan as well as current challenges and developments.

"We are very much satisfied with our visit here," admitted Colonel Jong-kee Hong. "One of the most interesting things is that here are many officers from other countries; we wanted to know how they coordinate with each other, how they can exchange the information and what the procedure of making decisions is,"
he explained.
