On 25 April 2012, two representatives from the General Staff of the Croatian Armed Forces paid a visit to Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) in Szczecin.

During one day visit, which has been organized by Major Michał Leszczyński from the G-5 Planning and Policy Division, the guests – Lieutenant Colonel Davor Pohovski and Lieutenant Colonel Mladen Prebežac - had an opportunity to familiarize with the Corps. Additionally selected Baltic Barracks personnel got more information about Croatian Armed Forces. Chief of the Policy Branch Lieutenant Colonel Volker Quante provided the presentation which covered among the others structure, mission and tasks of MNC NE. Planner Major Marc di Michele informed delegation about status of changes and challenges, which the Headquarters will meet in the nearest future. Chief G-7 Training and Exercise Division Lieutenant Colonel Olaf Werner provided slides with the planned Corps engagements in future exercises and activities, while Mr. Jőrg Bűttner representing Legal Advisor Office shared his knowledge about process of affiliation of units to the Corps. To fulfill MNC NE's request, Staff Officer Force Planning Lieutenant Colonel Davor Pohovski from the Planning Directorate (J-5) of the General Staff of the Croatian Armed Forces briefed gathered personnel about structure of the Croatian Armed Forces and ongoing processes as well as about units and capabilities they will have available in the nearest future for possible affiliation to MNC NE.

“Idea of our visit which we call “Orientation visit” was to find out possibilities to enlarge number of personnel of Croatian Armed Forces in MNC NE and affiliation of our forces to MNC NE” said Lieutenant Colonel Davor Pohovski.
“We were also in Baltic Barracks to get more details about the life and other details for an officer who will work in the nearest future in your barracks” he added.
