From 25 to 30 August 2012, Major Arkadiusz Celiński , Polish Army, from G6 Staff Division represented the Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) in the exercise Bagram XII.

This is the final certification exercise and, at the same time, mission rehearsal exercise for each Polish Task Force designed for International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) mission in Afghanistan. In the course of the exercise Bagram XII, the Headquarters Polish Task Force White Eagle and Headquarters Battle Group, both established on the basis of 12th Mechanized Brigade from Szczecin and Air Assault Detachment, underwent their last tests and certifications. The Joint Conflict and Tactical Simulation System (JCATS) with the Blue Force Tracking System and Joint Exercise Management Module (JEMM) served as the basic simulation platform for the certificated units during this Command Post Exercise (CPX) and Computer Assisted Exercise (CAX).

The series of exercises Bagram is executed at the Polish Military Training Centre for Peace

Support Operation located in Kielce, Poland, twice a year.
