The event started with a holy mass organized in the Garrison Church and was followed by a march to the amphitheatre where all awards, medals as well as nominations for the next ranks have been read out. Firemen received medals and awards from the President of the Republic of Poland, from the Minister of Interior and from the State and Provincial Fire Brigade authorities.

The celebrations have also been an occasion to express gratitude and respect to the efforts and sacrifices firemen make every day. In their speeches all guest thanked for all saved human lives and properties. They have also emphasized achievements of that 20-years-young formation, professional attitude and variety of tasks firemen have to deal with on daily basis.

The event was accompanied by several presentations, and educational demonstrations enhancing public's awareness in first aid and secure behavior in crisis situations.
