

National mourning in Poland

Written by AG

Monday, 30 January 2006 00:00

Headquarters MNC NE joined national mourning in Poland and lowered at half-mast all flags to paid a tribute to the victims of the Saturday's roof collapse in the International Exhibition Center in Katowice. On Sunday, at 16.00 Poland has begun three days of mourning.

67 people were killed and 150 injured in the hall, which had been hosting an event for world pigeon enthusiasts. There were also foreigners among the confirmed dead: two Czechs, one Belgian, one German and one Slovak. National mourning will last to Wednesday, the 1st February. During those days Polish flags will be lowered to half mast on the governmental buildings.