On Tuesday 20th of June, the group of 35 participants from Jakob Kaiser Association visited Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) to learn more about the multinational dimension of Baltic Barracks in Szczecin.

According to 38 visitors from the Jakob Kaiser Foundation, who paid one-day visit in Baltic Barracks, seat of Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) was an interesting experience for the Association. The Jakob Kaiser Association is a German, nationally recognized institution of the political and vocational further training for young people and adults. The main task for the Jakob Kaiser Association is a comprehensive political education as well as diminishing social prejudices, communication difficulties and finally promoting and strengthening international relationships. Visiting the Headquarters was a part of study tour for the recently carried out project devoted to European Union Integration. "It was a natural step to come and visit HQ MNC NE in Szczecin, as it is a clear evidence of the recent political changes in Poland and a visible sign of successful integration with NATO" – noted German visitors.
