

Teaching future teachers...

Written by AG

Monday, 02 April 2007 09:00

The students from Pädagogische Hochschule Weingarten are going to be teachers soon. The visit to the Corps is a part of a 6-day seminar on security policy.

On 29th March a group of German students visited the HQ MNC NE. The students were welcomed by Colonel (GS) Peter M. Baierl, the Commander Permanent Headquarters, and then took part in a briefing on MNC NE, its history and perspectives of development, which was delivered by Lieutenant Colonel Helmut Foag, the Chief of Staff PHQ. After the official part, all participants had lunch together.

The students from Pädagogische Hochschule Weingarten are going to be teachers soon. The visit to the Corps is a part of a 6-day seminar on security policy, which mostly takes place in Berlin. On behalf of the German Ministry of Defence, Information and Media Centre of Bundeswehr organizes and accompanies such seminars designed for civilians.