

Family Brunch in sunbeams

Written by AG

Wednesday, 06 June 2007 09:00

As usual, there was excellent food and nice atmosphere and children's laughter heard within the Baltic Barracks.

On 6th June 2007 the next Family Brunch took place. As usual, there was excellent food and nice atmosphere and children's laughter heard within the Baltic Barracks. The adults could chat and have a good time and a nanny kept a sharp eye on the children inventing games and competitions for them. But one more unexpected guest came to the party making it unusual. It was the Summer with sunbeams and heat. Feeling its presence on the skin, it seems that such weather must be a tough nut to crack for the children waiting for their holidays...