After many months of work, the MNC NE Public Affairs Office team is proud to present you with a totally new website of the Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE).

Along with the beginning of the new year 2009, we have launched our new MNC NE website. We did our best to make this website interesting, informative and more user-friendly.

MNC NE being as innovative as possible brings you the website which reflects new trends in website design and delivers you modern features, like RSS feed, comments submission as well as a better multimedia support.

We encourage you to browse through our articles, news and multimedia galleries, which will give you the best impression on the past and present events going on in the Headquarters. We would also be grateful if you – our guest – shared your views and opinions with us, and other people visiting this website using the comment tool placed under each news article.

Keeping in mind that the composition of both visual and audio elements is what contemporary Internet users like best; we have incorporated some videos into our website, too. You will have a chance to look into the Corps' life and see its unique, multinational character.

We hope that this website will meet all your needs and will be a valuable source of information on the activities of MNC NE.

We welcome your comments on the design, content, functionality and accessibility of our new website.

Enjoy!
