From 3 to 5 May 2010, the Commander of the Multinational Corps Northeast (MNC NE) Lieutenant General Rainer Korff visited Denmark, the General Korff, assisted by his aide-de-camp Captain Sebastian Bley and Danish representative Lieutenant Colonel Bjarne H. Jensen, first visited the Combined Air Operations Centre 1 (CAOC 1) in Finderup. He met the Deputy Commander of the unit Brigadier General Jan Śliwka and was briefed about CAOC 1. As a matter of fact, the Allied Operations Coordination Centre, an air unit collocated to the Corps, is affiliated for exercises and operations to CAOC 1.

The next point in the itinerary was Karup where the Danish Army Operational Command is located. Lieutenant Colonel Tommy Kjær, the Danish Co-Chairman at the Corps Committee, joined the Corps delegation during the meeting with the Commander of the Danish Army Operational Command Major General Niels Henrik Bundsgaard. Consequently, also the Corps matters raised during the last Corps Committee Meeting were discussed.
