

On 22 November 2011 more than 60 students from the Institute of History and International Relations of Szczecin University visited Headquarters Multinational Corps Northeast (HQ MNC NE) to learn about the Corps.

The students were warmly welcomed by Master Sergeant Michael Rauhe from Visitors and Observers Bureau. Afterwards, the HQ MNC NE representative Major Marcin Walczak from the Public Affairs Office delivered a special briefing. Among other things, the briefing referred to the Corps' tasks, structure and the two missions in Afghanistan. The students also had an opportunity to ask questions being mostly interested in the recently accomplished mission in Afghanistan as well as the future of the Corps. Furthermore a few of them were interested in ways of becoming a soldier and a member of the Corps.

"We are really surprised by hospitality of the Corps," said Mr Krzysztof Rosiak, the head of the group. "We are impressed by the Corps' modernity and experience gathered by the soldiers serving here," he added.

HQ MNC NE visit programme provides perfect opportunities for groups like VIPs, students,

Most Wanted: NATO knowledge

Written by Marcin Walczak

Tuesday, 22 November 2011 15:54

---

opinion shapers and members of various organisations to visit the only NATO Headquarters in this part of Europe.

