

Following the Corps Convention, to support the Headquarters' activities three nations – Denmark, Germany and Poland – have their own National Support Elements. Their tasks differ substantially, though.